

Create your own Radio Show

By Lorena Monje & Silvana Ruckman

Blog Talk Radio logo used with permission.

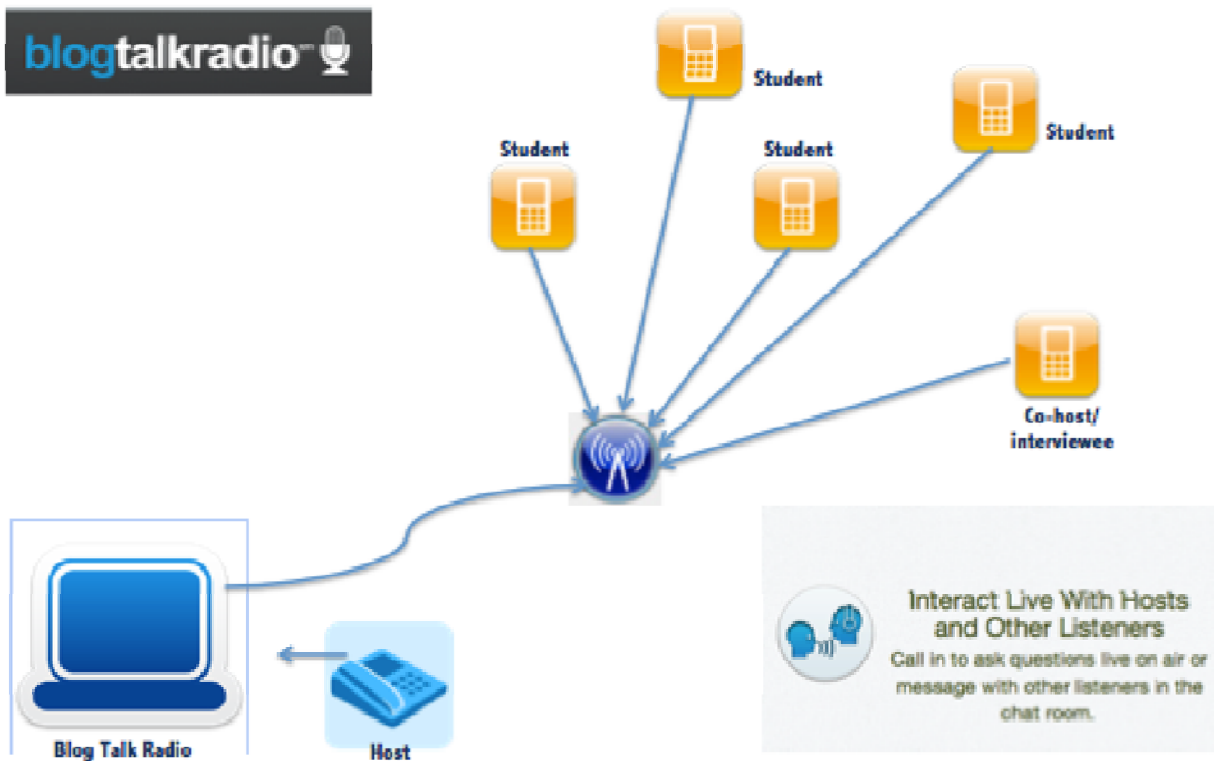

Use this program as a tool for creative communicative activities in and out of the classroom.

Blog Talk Radio logos used with permission.

Objectives

- Encourage students' oral participation in a relaxed atmosphere.
- Lower student anxiety with a friendly and easy to use platform.
- Practice and enhance oral production and listening comprehension skills.
- Engage students in authentic conversation.

As part of classroom instruction

Interaction takes place in a variety of formats:

Teacher centered approach

Teacher(s) and guest(s) are the broadcasters and students call in.

Student centered approach

Student(s) and guest(s) are the broadcasters and peers call in.

As an extension of classroom instruction

- The program is created on a regular basis and incorporates key material/concepts from the curriculum.
- Instructor and guests are the broadcasters who discuss a variety of topics focusing in cultural aspects and current events.
- Students have the option to listen to the live broadcast and call to participate.
- Students can download the podcast and listen at any time from any device.

Blog Talk Radio

Interact Live With Hosts and Other Listeners

Call in to ask questions live on air or message with other listeners in the chat room.

Visit our website to find out how to plan, design and carry out your radio show: Website Link

Blog Talk Radio logo used with permission.